11	DISPOSAL DISTRICT REGARDING THE SOLID WASTE EXCISE PRIVILEGE TAX
13
14	WHEREAS, solid waste management statutory obligations and programmatic
15	requirements such as closed landfill monitoring and maintenance, Disposal of Toxics facility
16	operations, waste reduction and recycling education, illegal dumping and litter control,
17	compliance enforcement and comprehensive planning require adequate funding
18	mechanisms; and,
19
20	WHEREAS, in 1997, to fund solid waste management statutory obligations and
21	programmatic requirements, Ordinance 97-41 amended WCC 8.13.030, Excise privilege tax
22	levied, and implemented a solid waste excise tax, currently established at $8.50 per ton,
23 24	excluding recyclable materials, to be levied against solid waste collection companies; and,
24 25	WHEDEAS because solid waste cannot be weighed surbeide during nickup each time
26	WHEREAS, because solid waste cannot be weighed curbside during pickup each time for each customer, the solid waste collection companies worked with the County to establish
27	a percent of invoice fee, as a 'reasonable estimate (Exhibit A),' to charge each customer;
28	and,
29	,
30	WHEREAS, because of differences in rate structures and customer base, each
31	collection company charges a different percent, and it is not apparent that taxes collected
32	exactly equal taxes remitted; and,
