the following questions

---

9. Please describe your occupation (or former occupation if retired), qualifications, professional and/or community activities, and education

I am a journeyman pipefitter / welder working in the northwest industrial maintenance in the area I've also struggled with substance abuse and being stuck in "transition" I hold this issue very close to my heart my compassion for those who suffer is deep but at the same time I know both sides to the "coin" I feel like I can relate to a lot of people on both sides and I'm looking to help constructively and hopefully influence or collectively come up with strategies that aren't dated and irrelevant in 2024

10. Please describe why you're interested in serving on this board or commission
