interest in response to the following questions

9. Please describe your occupation (or former occupation if retired), qualifications, professional and/or community activities, and education

Retired, I served as a Commissioned Officer in the USPHS for 20 years and hold a PhD in health services research and policy from the University of Minnesota. I currently serve on the Board of Whatcom Clubhouse, a psychosocial rehabilitation program for persons with serious mental illness. For the last three years I have served on the North Sound Board.

10. Please describe why you're interested in serving on this board or commission

I have found my participation on the North Sound Board very rewarding. I have contributed to policies shaping our crisis services system in Whatcom County, and wish to continue to provide input into the Agency's deliberations. There is much that needs to be done and I wish to continue to be part of this process.
