interest in response to the following questions

9. Please describe your occupation (or former occupation if retired), qualifications, professional and/or community activities, and education

Owner of Janicki logging & Janicki general contracting

10. Please describe why you're interested in serving on this board or commission

I believe the Whatcom forest are an integral part of the county and proper management is key to ensuring the success of those lands. I also feel there is a lack of education among the community and the timber industry suffers because of misguided public sentiment
