7	Please describe your occupation (or former occupation if retired), qualifications, professional and/or	Dairy farmer - currently employed by my father at Edelweiss Dairy. My wife and I recently moved back to Whatcom County after owning and operating our own dairy farm in Wisconsin for the last two years. I have worked in the dairy industry extensively and been around farming my whole life as I grew up along the Nooksack river. I have a degree in Ag & Food Business Economics from Washington State University and graduated from Lynden High School.
8	Please describe why you're interested in serving on this Advisory Group.	I believe local government is important as it directly affects those of us in the community it serves. I believe volunteering our time to serve on advisory committees and public boards is important for the lifeblood of a strong rural community. Growing up next to the Nooksack river gives me a respect and appreciation for how it plays a part in our community and history.
