RE: Contract Amend #2 – Courthouse Security Screener Services

Attached is the contract amendment #2 for the Courthouse Security Screener Services between Whatcom County and Pacific Security for your review and signature.

Facilities originally did not bring this Amendment forward for Council approval. We are seeking approval after the fact, as the contract has been approved.

▪ Background and Purpose

This contract is to allow Pacific Security to continue to provide security services at the Whatcom County Courthouse. Pacific Security will provide monitoring services of the parking lots, security screening & x-ray services for the full Courthouse. These services provide protection for the employees and patrons of the Courthouse including courts and courtrooms.

▪ Funding Amount and Source

Funding amount needed for this contract amendment is not to exceed $165,000; Jan – Jun 2026, for a new total of $477,416.14 for regular scheduled, after-hours meetings and any additional services that may require building security.

These services were approved in the regular 2025 – 2026 Facilities Budget in the amount of $206,750. State Contract #00624. The original contract was approved by Council on February 25, 2025.

▪ Differences from Previous Contract

This amendment is extending the expiration date to June 30, 2026 and increasing the total spending by $165,000.

Please contact Rob Ney at extension 5378, if you have any questions or concerns regarding the terms of this agreement.
