Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics:

Honor Guard Commander.

Education:

I attended Shoreline Community College, Whatcom Community College, and Western Washington University. I studied Criminal Justice, Sociology, and Psychology.

Throughout my career in law enforcement I continued to study and take course to improve my ability to serve my community. Instructor Development, Incident Command Structure, Forensic Child Interviewing, Homicide Investigation, Crises Negotiation and De-escalation, Bias and Discrimination, Domestic Violence, Crime Prevention through Environmental Design.

8. Please describe why you're interested in serving on this Advisory Group.

Throughout my life I have been drawn to careers that are community service focused. My goal in serving on this group would be to have the ability to engage in courageous conversations that will shape the future of public safety in Whatcom County. I worked on the yes jail campaign because I believe that incarceration is necessary to stop criminal behavior that is in progress. I also believe there are better, and more creative alternatives, to be explored in the area of recidivism reduction.
