9. Please describe your occupation (or former occupation if retired), qualifications, professional and/or community activities, and education

I have worked in the non-profit/human services sector for over a dozen years, starting in Snohomish County and relocating (back) to Whatcom County six years ago.

In my previous job, I served on Snohomish County's Community Services Advisory Council and regularly attended that region's LPA (Local Planning Agency) meetings. In my current position, I am a member of the Generations Forward Steering Committee and the Parent Leadership Training Institute (PLTI) Civic Design Team.

I have a Bachelor's Degree from the University of Washington in Social Sciences with emphasis on Gender, Ethnicity, and Culture.

10. Please describe why you're interested in serving on this board or commission

I am currently employed by Opportunity Council as their Executive Coordinator of Early Learning and Family Services (ELAFS). In my role, I work with staff and families in all of ELAFS' divisions (Quality Child Care, Head Start/Early Head Start/ECEAP, and Early Intervention) and believe that I could bring a valuable perspective of the challenges they are facing to the Child and Family Well-Being Task Force.
