interest in response to the following questions

9. Please describe your occupation (or former occupation if retired), qualifications, professional and/or community activities, and education

I have been in the field of early childhood education for over 20 years. I have worked in both nonprofit and for profit centers, and currently own my own in home childcare program. I am a graduate from Whatcom community colleges ECE program, and have served on their ECE advisory committee since 2016, and am the current committee chair. I am also the current president of the Whatcom providers association.

10. Please describe why you're interested in serving on this board or commission

I am passionate about improving access and increasing quality of early learning. I believe that an investment in our birth-5 population will greatly improve our community overall and know how important child care is to every aspect of our society, I would love to be involved in helping to drive this issue.
