the following questions

9. Please describe your occupation (or former occupation if retired), qualifications, professional and/or community activities, and education	I am a former member of the Stakeholder Advisory Committee. I am a current member of the Incarceration Prevention and Reduction Task Behavioral Health Committee. I was Chair of the Yes! Safe Jail Healthy Outcomes political action committee that successfully helped pass the jail and behavioral health levy. I am a member of the Public Defender Advisory Board. I am a hotelier, entrepreneur, and a user experience and project management consultant.
10. Please describe why you're interested in serving on this board or commission	I have spent the last three years focusing on the issues of behavioral health and criminal justice reforms and innovations in Whatcom County. Leading the Prop 4 campaign I was before thousands of voters and made many statements about the Implementation Plan and how it will work to solve critical issues in our community. Now I want to execute on those plans, backing up those statements with action.
