Dear Mr. Green,

On January 9, 2024 the Whatcom County Council appointed you to the Business and Commerce Advisory Committee representing Higher Education. Port of Bellingham staff, facilitators for the committee, informed the County Council Office that you no longer attend committee meetings, no longer work at Whatcom Community College, and verbally indicated your resignation from the committee.

I'm writing to confirm this information is correct and to get a resignation in writing for the record. If you are employed by another Higher Education institution in Whatcom County, then you still qualify for your position and don't need to resign. However, if your intention is to resign the position and/or you no longer work in higher education, I'm hoping you can let me know in writing. A quick email is just fine. You may email me at jnixon@co.whatcom.wa.us, or the Council Office at council@co.whatcom.wa.us.

Please let me know by November 21, 2025 if you intend to resign. Thank you for your service on the committee.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Green,

On January 9, 2024 the Whatcom County Council appointed you to the Business and Commerce Advisory Committee representing Higher Education. Port of Bellingham staff informed the County Council Office that you no longer attend committee meetings and no longer work at Whatcom Community College.

The Advisory Committee is an active and important partner in reviewing regulations and policies that could impact local businesses, industry, and economic development. Regular participation by its members is important to its success. The representative of higher education provides necessary perspective and an important voice on the Committee.

Please confirm whether you still qualify for your position as a representative of higher education, or if you need to resign due to your change in employment. Please notify either the County Council Office or Kori Olsen at the Port of Bellingham by January 16 (contact information below).
