and education

kindergarten teacher in Kuwait. I earned a Master in Teaching from City University in 2009.

10. Please describe why you're interested in serving on this board or commission

I have been disabled by rheumatoid arthritis for more than 30 years. Over the years I have struggled with accessibility in public places and in housing. Since moving to Bellingham 3 years ago, I have noticed that ADA compliance varies from business to business and in the public school district. I would like to assist with making the county accessible for all of its residents.
