10. Please describe why you're interested in serving on this board or commission

As both a life-time cyclist and local resident, I've seen Whatcom Country grow substantially over my 50 years here. There will always be room for improvements within our transportation construct here in Bellingham/Whatcom County. I've toured around the world, been involved with organizations such as the Rails to Trails Conservancy and World T.E.A.M. Sports. I've teach bike and pedestrian safety annually at local elementary schools and I was engaged in developing the initial B/P Committee in the early 2000's with a former County Exectutive.
