Birch Bay Library Capital Facility Area

(appoint 3 councilmembers)

Meeting dates / times are flexible, approx. 3-4 times in 2022.

Location TBD

If the measure passes in February, we will need to convene the LCFA Committee as soon as the ballot is certified (so probably early March). WCLS staff would attend the meeting. At this first meeting, the committee would need to elect a President and a Secretary. The third committee member does not have a title. The Committee would immediately vote on a Memorandum of Understanding with WCLS spelling out the responsibilities of the LCFA (to authorize the issuance of bonds) and those of WCLS (to do everything else to prepare the bonds for issuance and construct and operate the library).

There would likely be a second meeting in May or June to authorize the issuance of bonds.

A third meeting would relate to authorizing the levy to finance the repayment of the bonds.

In subsequent years, the LCFA Committee would need to meet to reauthorize the annual levy.
