20.80.970 Home occupation

- Home occupations shall be subject to all the following requirements, which shall be regarded as cumulative regardless of the number of home occupations on the site:
- (1) No more than two people at one time, other than household members residing on the premises, shall be engaged in such occupations.
- (2)—The use of the property for home occupations shall be clearly accessory to its use for residential purposes.
- (3) In all zones except EI, UR, URM, and URMX, home occupations shall not exceed a total of 1,250 square feet of new building floor area, whether located in the dwelling, accessory structure(s) or combination thereof. There is no square footage limit inside accessory structures that existed on August 6, 2010; however, there shall not be new square footage in addition to existing square footage that would bring the total to greater than 1,250 square feet. In the EI, UR, URM, and URMX zones, home occupations shall not exceed a total of 500 square feet of building floor area, whether located in the dwelling, accessory structure(s) or combination thereof.
- (4) There shall be no change in the outside appearance of the building or premises or other visible evidence of a home occupation inconsistent with the residential character of the dwelling or neighborhood, other than one sign, not exceeding eight square feet in area, nonilluminated and mounted on the property.
- (5) No traffic shall be generated by such home occupations in greater volume than would normally be expected in the applicable zoning district and is appropriate for the road classification which serves the property.
- (6) Home occupations may use or store vehicles, in accordance with the following:
 - (a) The total number of vehicles used in connection with the home occupations shall be permitted
 - i. On a lot of record less than two acres, two commercial vehicles, each of which shall not exceed 105,500 pounds gross vehicle weight:
 - ii. On a lot of record two acres or greater, one commercial vehicle shall be allowed for each acre, up to 10 vehicles, regardless of weight.
 - (b) The vehicles shall not be stored within any required setback areas of the lot or adjacent roadways and shall be adequately screened from adjacent neighboring residences or roadways.
- (7)—Any need for parking generated by the conduct of such home occupations shall comply with the offstreet parking requirements as specified in this title. In addition, parking shall be provided for nonresident employees.
- (8) No equipment, process, or material shall be used in such home occupations which creates noise, vibration, glare, fumes, odors or electrical interference beyond the property line, or outside the building, in sufficient amounts and of such characteristics and duration as is likely to be injurious or cause damage to human health, plant or animal life, or property, or impacts heavier or different than would be expected from a residential property.
- (9)—Sales are limited to merchandise manufactured or repaired on the premises and/or items accessory to a service provided to patrons who receive services (such as hair care products for a beauty salon), telephone, mail order, catalog, e-commerce sales, or other electronic commerce sales. In no case shall home occupations consist of only on-site retail sales. Fees rendered for services for the sole use - or purpose of providing merchandise or equipment (such as tanning beds, copy machines, or similar products) shall be prohibited.

 - (10)The maximum nameplate horsepower rating of the electrical motors of any single piece of machinery operating in the home occupations shall be five horsepower. The electrical service for home occupations shall not exceed 200 amps.
- (11)The following activities, which include but are not limited to mortuaries, funeral homes, automobile, truck and heavy equipment repair and auto body work or auto body painting, are prohibited as home occupations.
 - (12)Customers/clients are prohibited on the premises prior to 7:00 a.m. and after 8:00 p.m. unless an exception is specifically granted by the administrator.

20.80.970 Home-Based Businesses

2.1

- There are four types of home-based businesses: Type I, Type II, Type III, and Type IV, as distinguished by the following standards. However, the following activities are prohibited as home-based businesses: mortuaries and funeral homes; live commercial entertainment; postal services; shooting ranges; coffee roasters; semi-truck storage; self-service storage facilities; automobile, truck, and heavy equipment repair or auto body work and painting; cannabis production, processing, or retail sales; or similar activities. For the purpose of land use regulation, family or mini-day day care homes are not considered home-based businesses.
- (1) General Standards. All Type I, II, III, and IV home-based businesses shall be subject to the following requirements, which shall be regarded as cumulative regardless of the number of home-based businesses on the site:
 - (a) The use of the property for home-based businesses shall be clearly incidental to its use as a residence.
 - (b) The size and scale of the operation shall be compatible with the character of the surrounding neighborhood, and any impacts may not exceed the intensity to those generated by other uses allowed in the zone.
 - (c) There shall be no change in the outside appearance of the building(s) or premises or other visible evidence of a home-based business inconsistent with the character of the dwelling or neighborhood.
 - (d) The home-based business may be conducted within any legal principal or accessory dwelling unit or structure. Home-based businesses may be conducted by residents of a principal dwelling unit and/or an accessory dwelling unit. The presence of one home occupation does not preclude a resident of another legally established dwelling unit on the property from also conducting a home occupation.
 - (e) Any need for parking generated by the conduct of such home-based businesses shall generally comply with the off-street parking requirements of WCC 20.80.500. In addition, parking shall be provided for nonresident employees. Parking of vehicles associated with the home-based business is permitted anywhere that parking is permitted on the lot.
 - Customers/clients are prohibited on the premises prior to 7:00 a.m. and after 8:00 p.m. unless
 an exception is specifically granted by the Director.
 - (f) The home-based business shall be conducted so that noise, fumes, odor, smoke, dust, light, glare, vibration, electrical interference, and other similar impacts are not detectable by sensory perception at or beyond the property line of the lot where the home occupation is located.
 - (g) On site sales in connection with home-based businesses are limited to merchandise handcrafted on site or items accessory to a service (i.e., hair care products for a beauty salon). In no case shall home-based businesses consist only of on-site retail sales. Telephone, mail order catalog, e-
