MEMORANDUM

TO: Jack Louws, County Executive
FROM: Bill Elfo, Sheriff
RE: 2020 Skagit County Interlocal Northwest Minichain Agreement
DATE: November 7, 2019

Enclosed are two (2) originals of the 2020 Interlocal Cooperative Agreement for Mini-Chain Services between Whatcom County and Skagit County for your review and signature.

▪ Background and Purpose

Whatcom County runs the northern leg of the Northwest Shuttle Transport System down the I-5 corridor. This system, part of an informal statewide relay system that began in 1970 to move offenders who were wanted in one county but who had been arrested in another, allows us to generate revenues to help off-set the costs of moving these offenders. Prior to the creation of the Shuttle system, the individual Counties were responsible for retrieving offenders throughout the State who were wanted in their County. This meant that deputies from multiple agencies were traveling to other jurisdictions, sometimes on a daily basis.

As part of the overall shuttle, approximately 14 years ago Whatcom County began contracting with the Counties north of Seattle, and some smaller cities, to move their offenders to and from a central hub. In 2011, Snohomish County decided to discontinue contracting with us, leading us to some changes in the way the northern leg was operated. We continue to contract with Skagit County, Island County, Oak Harbor and Marysville and receive in-kind support from Snohomish County. This agreement allows for Skagit County to pay for inmates being transported for their agency.

▪ Funding Amount and Source

This revenue is paid to Whatcom County for services rendered. It is based on Skagit County's estimated percentage of the total County cost of running this system. This year's contract with Skagit County will be a total of $153,411.00.

▪ Differences from Previous Contract

This contract is reviewed annually to ascertain the cost of the upcoming year's expenditures. Skagit County's contract reflects only actual Skagit County transports. Since the number of transports for Skagit County decreased in 2019, their per diem rate for 2020 has decreased by $3,515.00.
