County Council's Office

County Council

The legislative branch of Whatcom County government, the County Council comprises seven elected part-time council members. The council meets regularly on every other Tuesday evening and enacts ordinances and resolutions, sets the county budgets, creates policies and hears appeals. Check the library, newspaper, county website (www.co.whatcom.wa.us) or the council office for schedules and agendas.

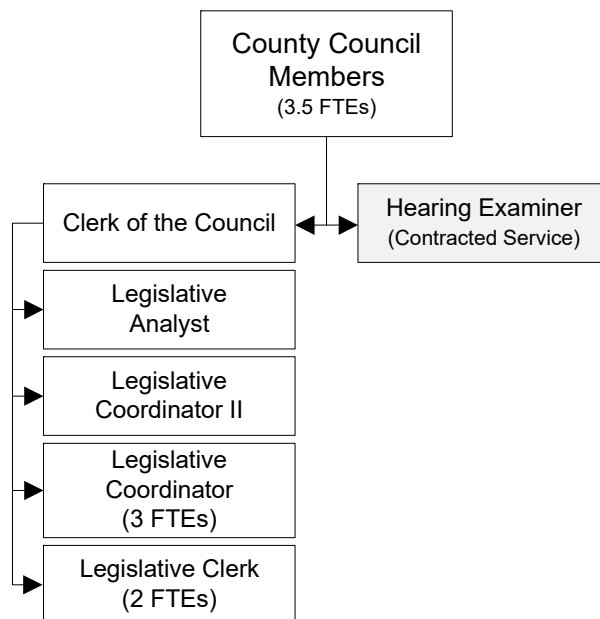

The County Council also contracts for hearing examiner services. The Hearing Examiner serves as a quasi-judicial officer to hear, evaluate, and decide specific land use and development proposals.

- No legislative function - applies laws and ordinances passed by the County Council.
- Public hearings are generally held weekly, as needed. Please call for current schedule.
- Files are available for public review by appointment.

County Executive's Office

An elected official, the County Executive manages the day-to-day functions of administrative departments. The Executive is responsible for quarterly and annual revenue estimation and tracking, recommends the county's budget to the County Council, and monitors all departments' expenditures to ensure budget compliance. The Executive appoints members to boards and commissions, responds to citizen concerns, complaints and requests, and represents the County at local, regional, state, and federal levels. The Executive is also responsible for managing all "non-departmental" services that the county provides.

County Sheriff’s Office

Sheriff

An elected official, the County Sheriff is responsible for law enforcement in the unincorporated areas of Whatcom County. The sheriff also has several countywide responsibilities (serving both the cities and unincorporated areas), including operating the county jail and coordinating professional and volunteer search & rescue efforts.

The Sheriff’s Emergency Management Division provides community education in disaster mitigation and preparedness, and plans for and coordinates disaster response and recovery efforts.

Sheriff – Bureau of Corrections

The Whatcom County Sheriff’s Office (WCSO) Corrections Bureau operates the Whatcom County Jail and the Alternative Corrections program. The jail is a medium security facility responsible for the incarceration of approximately 210 prisoners daily. In addition, Whatcom County operates a minimum-security facility that can house up to an additional 150 prisoners daily. The Corrections Bureau also oversees the northern part of a statewide transport chain that links the various jails and detention facilities. The Corrections Bureau is also responsible for facilitating alternative sentencing programs. Current alternative programs include: electronic home detention, work release, in custody and out of custody work crews. In addition, Corrections Bureau also facilitates the District Court Electronic Equipment Program.

Superior Court

Superior Court

Whatcom County’s four Superior Court judges, four full time court commissioners, one part time court commissioner and various contracted commissioners hear all cases involving: adult felonies, all juvenile offenses, divorce, child custody, support matters, probate, guardianships, adoptions, property claims in excess of $35,000, paternity actions, mental incompetency, and abused or neglected children. Superior Court Administration oversees judicial operations, Drug Court, Family Treatment Court, other specialty court programs, pre-trial services and family law facilitation.

Superior Court - County Clerk

The County Clerk serves as the clerk for Superior Court administering the office, systems, and accounts for funds, legal financial obligations, records, custody, delivery of records, and exhibits for this court of record for the State of Washington. The County Clerk also supervises the assigned counsel function, which manages indigence screening, conflict counsel and some guardian ad litem/guardianship contracts.

Superior Court - Juvenile Court Administration

Through Juvenile Court Probation, Detention Center and a number of special programs, this department provides services to assist young offenders with personal and/or environmental problems that get them into trouble with the legal system. The Juvenile Detention Facility is located on the 6th floor of the courthouse. (Visiting hours are limited. Call for schedule.) In addition, this department also provides a volunteer guardian ad litem program and staff guardians ad litem for children in dependency cases.
